

ABAC Document Overview

ABAC Dialogue with Leaders Overview

- The Dialogue will be held on Russky Island on Saturday, September 8. ABAC members will be notified of assembly and transportation arrangements in Vladivostok. The Dialogue is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. however the assembly time will likely be an hour or more earlier than that.
- ABAC participants and Leaders will be split into five groups (see attached page). Groups will be seated around a table. There will be four Leaders and 11 - 12 ABAC participants in each group. Each group will meet in separate small rooms.
- Each Leader has been assigned an ABAC member from their economy to act as a “facilitator”. Richard Lavin will serve as the “facilitator” for Secretary Clinton who will be representing the U.S. One ABAC member in each group will serve as the discussion leader.
- President Putin and ABAC Chairman Ziyavudin Magomedov will move between the groups. The key messages and questions to be asked in the Dialogue will be finalized in the preparatory small group meetings held from 12:15 – 2:30 on September 5. The topics will be based upon the key messages from the ABAC Letter to Leaders.
- All discussions from the Dialogue are “off-the-record”.
- The Dialogue will last one hour. Leaders will likely depart the venue first, followed by ABAC participants.
- In the past ABAC participants have met after the Dialogue to share the issues that were discussed in an off the record format. NCAPEC is currently confirming whether or not ABAC Russia plans to organize this session in Vladivostok.
- Additional details on logistics will be available closer to the date of the Dialogue in Vladivostok
